About

Started in 2016, CGCO is an annual Iranian conference for supporting and leading game researchers. It covers various aspects of game research including psychology, sociology, computer science, information technology, art, medical sciences, management, economy, and other related subjects.

Venue

CGCO'19 will be held at historical city of Kashan, a city in the Isfahan province, which runs along the edge of the central deserts of Iran. After world known Iranian historical cities such as Isfahan and Shiraz. Kashan is a common destination for foreign tourists due to its numerous historical places. Archeological discoveries in the 7000-years-old Sialk Hillocks, which lie 2.5 miles (4 km) towards west of Kashan, reveal that this region was one of the primary centers of civilization in pre-historic ages. University of Kashan was founded in 1973 with departments of mathematics and physics. In 1994, by offering engineering disciplines, this university was acknowledged as a main university by the Iran Ministry of Science. Currently, University of Kashan has 5 faculties of Engineering. Chemistry, Humanities, Science, Architecture, and Arts. Accommodating more than 7500 students in 50 disciplines of undergraduate, graduate, and postgraduate levels and having about 300 full-time faculty members, this university is approaching the clear future horizons.
